AFTER-HOURS SERVICE REGULATIONS

1. After-hours ferry service is defined as any morning, evening or between run service not included in the normal schedule of the ferry.
2. After-hours ferry service should be scheduled in advanced whenever possible and the executed Authorization Form or facsimile posted on the ferry 24 hours in advance.

3. After-hours ferry service requires availability of captain/crew and approval of two ferry directors. Unauthorized after-hours service is prohibited.
4. After-hours ferry service charges may be discounted to $200 per hour for residents/landowners with approval of two ferry directors.
5. Extended after-hour ferry service can be accommodated with approval of two ferry directors and availability of the ferry captain/crew.
6. After-hours ferry service payments should be made payable to the Delta Ferry Authority and submitted to the Delta Ferry Authority, Attention: Pamela Forbus in advance of requested service. Under no circumstances are payments to be made to the ferry captain or other employees of the Delta Ferry Authority. Frequent ferry users may establish a prepaid account. Advance payments are refundable if after-hours service is canceled within 24 hours of scheduled service.
7. After-hours usage will be billed in half-hour increments. Off-day usage will have a four-hour minimum.
8. After-hours service is non-proprietary. The requesting party responsible for payment of the after-hours rate will be given the highest priority for service, but other individuals may still utilize ferry service during the same period if space is available.
9. A completed authorization form should accompany all after-hours service requests.
